APPENDIX A – RULES OF ORDER A1	23

PREAMBLE

In order to improve the social and economic welfare of its members without regard to sex, colour, race or creed, to promote efficiency in public employment and to manifest its belief in the value of the unity of organized labour, this Local of the Canadian Union of Public Employees (hereinafter referred to as CUPE) has been formed.

The following By-Laws are adopted by the Local pursuant to, and to supplement, Appendix "B" of the CUPE Constitution, to safeguard the rights of all members, to provide for responsible administration of the Local, and to involve as many members as possible through the sharing of duties and responsibilities.

SECTION 1 NAME

The name of this Local shall be: Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local No. 4177 Nechako Lakes Schools.

SECTION 2 OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Local are to:

- (a) secure adequate remuneration for work performed and generally advance the economic and social welfare of its members and of all workers;
- (b) support CUPE in reaching the goals set out in Article II of the CUPE Constitution;
- (c) provide an opportunity for its members to influence and shape their future through free democratic trade unionism;

- (d) encourage the settlement by negotiation and mediation of all disputes between the members and their employers.

SECTION 3 INTERPRETATION and DEFINITIONS

- (a) Masculine pronouns shall be understood to include the feminine gender.
- (b) Numbers of Articles at the end of sections or sub-sections refer to relevant articles of the CUPE Constitution which should be read in conjunction with these by-laws.

SECTION 4 MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS - Regular and Special

- (a) Regular membership meetings shall be held as determined by the executive board but not less than bi-monthly. No regular meetings will be scheduled during July and August.

Membership meeting notices shall be posted in each work site not less than one (1) week prior to the meeting date.

- (b) Special membership meetings may be ordered by the Executive Board or requested in writing by no fewer than 6 members. The President shall immediately call a special meeting when so ordered or requested and shall see that all members receive at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice of the special meeting and the subject(s) to be discussed. No business shall be transacted at the special meeting other than that for which the meeting is called, and notice given.
- (c) A quorum for the transaction of business at any regular or special meeting shall be eight (8) members, including at least two (2) of the members of the Executive Board.
- (d) The order of business at regular membership meetings is as follows:

1. Roll Call of Officers
2. Traditional Territory Acknowledgement
3. Equality Statement
4. Voting of New Members and Initiation
5. Reading of Minutes
6. Matters Arising
7. Treasurer's Report

- proper constitutional or membership authorization;
- ensure that proper financial reports are made to the membership;
- audit the record of attendance;
- inspect at least once a year any stocks, bonds, securities, office furniture and equipment, and titles or deeds to property that may at any time be owned by the Local, and report their findings to the membership;
- use audit forms supplied by the National Office and send a copy of each yearly audit to the National Secretary-Treasurer in accordance with the provisions of the CUPE Constitution.

(Articles B.3.10 to B.3.12)

SECTION 9 OUT-OF-POCKET EXPENSES

Expense allowance shall be paid at the rates currently prescribed by CUPE BC and/or as provided for by policy of the Local.

SECTION 10 FEES DUES and ASSESSMENTS

(a) Initiation Fee

Each application for membership in the Local shall be directed to the Treasurer and shall be accompanied by an initiation fee of $1 .00 (one) dollar which shall be in addition to monthly dues. The Secretary-Treasurer shall issue a receipt.

If the application is rejected the fee shall be returned.

(Articles B.4.1 & B. 8.2)

(b) Readmittance Fee

The readmittance fee shall be $5.00 (five dollars).

(Articles B.4.1)

(c) Monthly Dues

The monthly dues shall be at least 1% of gross pay plus the amount levied by CUPE National.

(Article B.4.3)

Changes in the levels of the Initiation Fee, the Readmittance Fee, or the Monthly Dues can be affected only by following the procedure for amendment of these by-laws (see Section 16), with the additional provision that the vote must be by secret ballot.

(Articles B.4.3)

Notwithstanding the above provisions, if the CUPE Convention raises minimum fees and/or dues above the level herein established, these by-laws will be deemed to have been automatically amended to conform to the new CUPE minima.

(d) Special Assessments

- (i) Any member who fails to respect the Local Union's picket line, or works for the employer during a legal strike or a labour dispute, or engages in any strikebreaking activity shall be assessed an amount equal to the gross earnings, if any, of that member from such employment and such assessment shall be payable to the Union upon receipt of same from the employer.

In addition, any member assessed for this offence against the Union shall be subject to the trial process provided for under section B. XI of the CUPE Constitution.

- (ii) Other special assessments may be levied in accordance with Article B.4.2 of the CUPE Constitution.

SECTION 11 NON-PAYMENT OF DUES and ASSESSMENTS

Any member in arrears for a period of three months or more shall be automatically suspended and his suspension shall be reported to the Executive Board by the Treasurer.

The Executive Board shall report to the next membership meeting with a recommendation. Any member under suspension wishing to be reinstated shall upon application, pay the readmittance fee, plus any dues and assessments in arrears. This money will be returned if the application is rejected. If a member has been unemployed or unable to work because of sickness, he shall pay the readmittance fee but may not be required to pay his arrears.

(Article B.8.6)

SECTION 12 - NOMINATION, ELECTION AND INSTALLATION Of OFFICERS

(a) Nomination

Nominations shall be received at the regular membership meeting held in the month of February. To be eligible for nomination a member shall be a member in good standing. No member shall be eligible for nomination if he is in arrears of dues and/or assessments.

(Article B.8.3)

(b) Elections

1. At a membership meeting at least one month prior to election day the President shall, subject to the approval of the members present, appoint an Elections Committee consisting of a Returning Officer and assistant(s). The Committee shall include members of the Local who are neither officers nor candidates for office, it shall have full responsibility for voting arrangements and shall treat information submitted to it in connection with its responsibilities as confidential.
2. The Executive Board shall determine the form of the ballot and ensure that sufficient quantities are made available in good time to the Returning Officer.

3. The Returning Officer shall be responsible for issuing, collecting, and counting ballots. He must be fair and impartial and see that all arrangements are unquestionably democratic.
4. The voting shall take place at the regular membership meeting in February. The vote shall be by secret ballot.
5. Voting to fill one office shall be conducted and completed, and recounts dealt with, before balloting may begin to fill another office.
6. A majority of votes cast shall be required before any candidate can be declared elected, and second and subsequent ballots shall be taken, if necessary, to obtain a majority. On the second and subsequent ballots the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes in the previous ballot shall be dropped. In case of a final tie vote, the presiding officer may cast the deciding vote.
7. When two or more nominees are to be elected to any office by ballot, each member voting shall be required to vote for the full number of candidates to be elected or the member's ballot will be declared spoiled.
8. Any member may request a recount of the votes for any election and a recount shall be conducted if the request is supported, in a vote, by at least the number of members equal to the quorum for a membership meeting as laid down in Section 4 (c).

(c) Installation

1. All duly elected officers shall be installed at the meeting at which elections are held and shall continue in office for a two (2) year term or until a successor has been elected and installed, provided, however, that no term of office shall be longer than three years.
(Article B.2.4)
2. The terms of office for trustees shall be as laid down in Article B.3.10 of the CUPE Constitution.

(d) By-Election

Should an office fall vacant pursuant to Section 7 (g) of these by-laws or for any other reason, the resulting by-election should be conducted as closely as possible in conformity with this Section.

SECTION 13 DELEGATES TO CONVENTIONS

- Except for the President's option [Section 8 (a)], all delegates to conventions shall be recommended by the Executive Board, and approved by the members at a membership meeting.
- Delegates to the Northern Area District Council shall be recommended by the Executive Board and approved by the members at a membership meeting.
- An official reporter for these delegates shall be appointed annually by the President from among these delegates, and he shall be required to report at each membership meeting of the Local on proceedings at recent meetings of the Council.
- All delegates elected to the conventions held outside the district shall be paid transportation expenses in accordance with the current CUPE BC rates and pursuant to policy of the local approved by the membership, and an amount equal to any loss of salary incurred by attendance at the convention.

- Representation at educational institutes and seminars shall be on the recommendation of the Executive Board, subject to final approval by the membership.

SECTION 14 COMMITTEES

(a) Negotiating Committee

This shall be a special ad hoc committee established at least-six (6) months prior to the expiration of the Local's collective agreement and automatically disbanded when a new collective agreement has been signed. The function of the Committee is to prepare collective bargaining proposals and to negotiate a collective agreement. The Committee shall consist of six (6) members, and two (2) alternates, all elected at a membership meeting. The CUPE Representative assigned to the Local shall be a non-voting member of the Committee and shall be consulted at all stages from formulating proposals, through . negotiations, to contract ratification by the membership.

(b) Special Committees

A special ad hoc committee may be established for a specified purpose and period by the membership at a meeting. The members shall be elected at the same or another membership meeting or may, by specific authorization of the membership, be appointed by the President or the Executive Board. Two members of the Board may sit on any special committee as ex-officio members.

(c) Standing Committees

The Chairperson of each standing committee shall be elected by the members at a membership meeting. The Chairperson and the Executive Board may, with the concurrence of the membership, jointly appoint other members to serve on a committee. The Vice-President shall be a member, ex-officio, of each committee. There shall be seven standing committees as follows:

(1) Grievance Committee

This Committee shall process all grievances not settled at the initial stage and its reports shall be submitted first to the Executive Board, with a copy to the CUPE Representative, and then to a membership meeting.

Grievances must be in writing on the forms provided by the National Office and be signed by the complainant or complainants, as provided for in the collective agreement. The Committee shall comprise the Chief Shop Stewards and two (2) other members to be selected from among the shop stewards. The Committee shall appoint its secretary from among its members.

(2) Education Committee

It shall be the duty of this Committee to: .

- arrange for representation of the Local at any appropriate and available educational seminar or conference and submit recommendations accordingly to the Executive Board;
- instruct delegates in the preparation of reports to the membership on seminars and conferences and maintain a reference file of these reports;
- co-operate with the Executive Board in preparing press releases and other publicity material;
- co-operate with the Education and Communications Departments of CUPE, and with the regional Education Representative, in implementing both the Local's and CUPE's policies in these fields. The Committee shall comprise between three (3) and five (5) members and shall appoint its secretary from among its members-

(3) Good and Welfare Committee

This Committee may:

- visit members who are ill;
- if a member is ill for more than a week, have sent some token of the Local's concern and desire to help, whether the member is at home or in hospital;
- arrange for blood donors to replace blood or plasma required by a member or one of his immediate family;
- extend the Local's condolences in the event of the death of a member or one of his immediate family and make other appropriate gestures in accordance with custom or the wishes of the family concerned;

● The Committee shall comprise between three (3) and seven (7) members.

(4) Social Committee

It is the function of this Committee to arrange and conduct all social and recreational activities of the Local as a result of decisions taken at membership meetings.

The Committee shall submit reports and proposals to the Executive Board or to the membership as required. A ceiling for the Committee's net expenditures shall be fixed annually by the membership but, other than that, all social and recreational events and activities shall be self-supporting. The Executive Board shall be held responsible for the proper and effective functioning of this Committee. The Committee shall comprise between two (2) and five (5) members,

(5) Liaison Committee

- Shall consist of the President, the Vice-President, 2nd Vice President and Chief Shop Steward. An alternate may be designated by the Executive Committee.
- Shall meet with management and/or its designates monthly;
- Shall report to the regular Local 4177 meetings.

(6) Newsletter Committee

It shall be the duty of this committee to:

- Produce a membership newsletter on a consistent basis for distribution to all work areas;
- Cooperate with the Communications Department of CUPE and with the regional Communications Representative, in promoting the Local's and CUPE's position in matters that affect CUPE members.
- The committee shall comprise between three (3) and five (5) members, and shall appoint its chairperson from among its members.

(7) Occupational Health & Safety Committee

It shall be the duty of this committee to:

- Investigate and follow up on complaints and concerns of members, as they relate to occupational health and safety;
- Cooperate with the Executive Board in addressing the Local's occupational health and safety matters, and submit a report to the Executive Board and then to the membership at a general meeting.
- Cooperate with the Occupational Health and Safety Department of CUPE and with the Regional OH&S Representative in promoting the Local's and CUPE's position in matters that affect the well-being of CUPE members;
- Attend the monthly Joint Occupational Health and Safety meeting with the employer and other employee groups.
- The Committee shall appoint its chairperson and its secretary from among its members. The representatives to the Joint OH&S meeting shall be the chairperson and the secretary; the committee shall choose an alternative.

SECTION 15 RULES OF ORDER

All meetings of the Local shall be conducted in accordance with the basic principles of Canadian parliamentary procedure. Some of the more important rules to ensure free and fair debate are appended to these by-laws as Appendix "A". These rules shall be considered as an integral part of the by-laws and may be amended only by the same procedure used to amend the by-laws.

In situations not covered by Appendix "A", the CUPE Constitution may provide guidance, but, if the situation is not dealt with there, Bourinot's Rules of Order shall be consulted and applied.

SECTION 16 - AMENDMENT

- a. These by-laws are always subordinate to the CUPE Constitution (including Appendix "B") as it now exists or may be amended from time to time, and in the event of any conflict between these by-laws and the CUPE Constitution the latter shall govern. Constitutional interpretation, including determination of conflict, is the prerogative of the National President.

(Articles 9.2(c), 13.3, & B.5.1)

- b. These by-laws shall not be amended, added to, or suspended except upon a majority vote of those present and voting at a regular or special membership meeting following seven days notice at a previous meeting or at least sixty days written notice.

(Article B.13.3, B5.1)

- c. No change in these by-laws shall be valid and take effect until approved by the National President of CUPE.. The validity shall date from the letter of approval of the National President. (Articles 13.3 & B.5.1)

Rules of Order

1. The President or, in his absence, the Vice-President, shall take the chair at all membership meetings. In the absence of both the President and Vice-President, the 2nd Vice-President shall act as President. In the absence of the President and both the Vice-President and 2nd Vice-President, the Recording Secretary shall act as President, and in his absence a President pro-tem shall be chosen by the Local.

2. No member, except the Chairperson of a committee making a report or the mover of a resolution, shall speak more than five minutes, or more than once on the same question without the consent of the meeting or until all who wish to speak have had an opportunity. Chairpersons and movers of a resolution shall be limited to fifteen minutes, except with the consent of the meeting.
3. The President shall state every question coming before the Local, and before allowing debate thereon, and again immediately before putting it to a vote, shall ask: "Is the Local ready for the question?" Should no member rise to speak, the question shall then be put.
4. A motion to be entertained by the presiding officer must be moved and seconded; both mover and seconder must rise and be recognized by the chair.
5. A motion to amend, or to amend an amendment, shall be in order, but no motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall be permitted. No amendment, or amendment to an amendment, which is a direct negative of the resolution shall be in order.
6. On motion, the regular order of business may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of those present, to deal with any urgent business.
7. All resolutions and motions other than those named in Rule 17, or those to accept or adopt the report of a committee, shall, if requested by the presiding officer, be presented in writing before being put to the Local.
8. At the request of any member, and upon a majority vote of those present, a question may be divided when the sense will admit of it.

9. Any member having made a motion can withdraw it with the consent of the seconder, except that any motion, once debated, cannot be withdrawn except by a majority vote of those present.
10. When a member wishes to speak on a question or to make a motion, he shall rise in his place and respectfully address the presiding officer, but, except to state that he rises to a point of order or on a question of privilege, he shall not proceed further until recognized by the chair.
- 11 . When two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the presiding officer shall decide which one is entitled to the floor.

APPENDIX "A" TO THE BY-LAWS OF LOCAL 4177, CUPE

12. Every member, while speaking, shall adhere to the question under debate and avoid all personal, indecorous, or offensive language, as well as any poor reflection on the Local or member thereof.
13. If a member, while speaking, is called to order, he shall cease speaking until the point is determined; if it is decided he is in order, he may again proceed.
14. No religious discussion shall be permitted.
15. The President shall take no part in debate while presiding, but may yield the chair to the Vice-President in order to speak on any question before the Local, or to introduce a new question.
16. The presiding officer shall have the same rights as other members to vote on any question. In case of a tie, he may in addition give a casting vote, or, if he chooses, refrain from breaking the tie, in which case the motion is lost.
17. When a motion is before the Local, no other motion shall be in order except (1) to adjourn (2) to put the previous question (3) to lay on the table (4) to postpone for a definite time (5) to refer (6) to divide or amend, which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The first three of these shall be decided without debate.
18. A motion for the previous question, when regularly moved and seconded, shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" 'if it is adopted, the President shall proceed to take the vote on the resolution and amendments thereto (if any) according to their priority. If an amendment or an amendment to an amendment is adopted, the original resolution, as amended, shall be put to the Local.

19. A motion to adjourn is in order except (1) when a member has the floor, and (2) when members are voting.
20. A motion to adjourn, having been put and lost, shall not be in order again, if there is further business before the Local, until fifteen minutes have elapsed.
21. After the presiding officer declares the vote on a question, and before the Local proceeds to another order of business, any member may ask for a division. A standing vote shall then be taken and the Secretary shall count same.
22. If any member wishes to challenge (appeal) a decision of the chair, he must do so at the time the decision is made. If the challenge is seconded, the member shall be asked to state briefly the basis for his challenge. The Chairperson may then state briefly the basis for his decision, following which the Chairperson shall immediately and without debate put the question: "Shall the decision of the chair be sustained?" A majority vote shall decide except that in the event of a tie the chair is sustained.
23. After a question has been decided, any two members who have voted in the majority may, at the same or next meeting, move reconsideration thereof.
24. No member shall enter or leave a meeting during the reading of the minutes, the initiation of new members, the installation of officers, or the taking of a vote; and no member shall be allowed to leave without the permission of the Vice-President.
25. The Local's business, and proceedings of meetings, are not to be divulged to any persons outside the Local or the Canadian Union of Public Employees.
